Central Research, Inc. Announces New Website Launch

Alexandria, Virginia, March 1, 2017 – Central Research, Inc. is pleased to announce the launch of its new fully-featured website www.central-research.com. This newly redesigned website offers new features and fresh content that clearly depicts CRI's capabilities and showcases its corporate culture.

This website offers quick and easy access to information about each of its core services and capabilities. Extended content is now available through press releases on the News and Media page, and in-depth content about who CRI's clients are and what CRI does for each client is now listed on the Clients page. These new features allow transparency and keep CRI's customers, consumers, partners, and employees informed about the groundbreaking work done at CRI.

This modern, clean look of the redesigned UX/UI website allows CRI to deliver a straightforward and informative experience. The new website will allow CRI to continue to grow and increase market presence.
