SECTION 2: HOUSEHOLD INCOME AND REASONAE	BLE AND NECESSARY MONTHLY EXPENS	ES
You have received this form because you requested the	opportunity to rehabilitate your defaulted I	Direct Loan(s) and/or FFEL Program Loan(s) and objected to the monthly payment amount your loan holder calculated using the 15 percent formula (15% of the amount by which your Adjusted Gross Income exceeds 150% of the poverty guideline amount applicable to your family size and state, divided by 12). Before completing this section, carefully read the entire form, including the instructions and definitions in Sections 5, 6, and 7. Your loan holder will use the information you provide on this form to determine an alternative reasonable and affordable monthly payment amount. If you want to rehabilitate your defaulted loan(s) you must choose to make qualifying payments in either the payment amount calculated using the 15 percent formula or the alternative payment amount determined based on the information you provide on this form. Once you choose the payment amount you want to make you must make 9 on-time payments of that amount over the next 10 months.		6.1

SECTION 5: INSTRUCTIONS

- If you are not completing this form electronically, type or print using dark ink. Enter dates as month-day-year (mm-dd-yyyy). Use only numbers. Example: January 31, 2013 = 01-31-2013. Include your name and account number(s) for your defaulted loan(s) on any documentation that you are required to submit with this form. If you need help completing this form, contact your loan holder(s).
  - Return the completed form to the address shown in Section 8.
- Monthly Income in Section 2 (Items 1 7).
   Your loan holder(s) may request supporting documentation for any income items:
   Employment income documentation may include a pay stub or a letter from the employer stating the income from that employer.
  - Child support, Social Security benefit, worker's compensation or public assistance documentation may include copies of benefits checks or a benefits statement, a letter from a court, a governmental body, or the individual paying child support, specifying the amount of the benefit.
  - Public assistance: Identify the type of public assistance received (See definition of "public assistance" in Section 6).
  - Other income: Include any other income not covered in items 1-6 and identify the source of the income.
- Monthly Expenses in Section 2 (Items 9-20). Your loan holder(s) may request supporting documentation for any of these items. Do not include a single expense in more than one category. If you have no expenses under a category, enter 0 for that category.
  - Food: Include the amount spent on food, even if purchased using the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) (food stamps).
  - Housing: Include the amount spent on housing and shelter, such as rent, required security deposits, and mortgage payments (including principal, interest, taxes, and homeowner's insurance).
  - Utilities: Include the amount spent on housingrelated utility bills, such as gas, electric, water, sewer, trash, and recycling.
  - Basic communication: Include the amount spent on basic communication expenses, such as basic telephone and internet expenses.

- Medical and dental: Include the amount spent on necessary medical and dental costs, such as medically necessary prescription and nonprescription medication, and medically necessary nutritional supplements. Do not include any costs relating to medical or dental insurance premium payments.
- Insurance: Include the amount spent on insurance, such as necessary renter's, auto, medical, dental, or life insurance. Include any amounts paid toward insurance premiums, but do not include any amount that is deducted from your paycheck and reflected in the amount of income you listed under Monthly Income. Include homeowner's insurance under Item 10 (Housing).
- Transportation: Include the amount spent on basic transportation expenses such as gas, car loans, basic vehicle maintenance, and public transportation.
- Dependent care: Include the amount spent on care for children or other dependents in the household and other work-related expenses.
- Legally required child support/spousal support Include the amount spent on legally required child support and spousal support.
- Federal student loan payments: Include the total monthly amount paid on any federal student loan(s), except the defaulted loans you are trying to rehabilitate unless you are subject to mandatory withholding such as wage garnishment or Treasury offset (i.e., your Social Security is being garnished). If you are subject to wage garnishment or Treasury offset include the amount that is collected from you monthly. (Include the amount of any payment, voluntary or otherwise.
- Private student loan payments: Include the total monthly amount paid on any private student loan(s). Include any type of payment, voluntary or otherwise.
- Other expenses: Include the amount spent on any other necessary expenses not covered in items 9 - 19 and explain these expenses. These other expenses will be considered only if the Department of Education determines that they should be considered.

SECTION 6: DEFINITIONS

- The Federal Family Education Loan (FFEL) Program includes Federal Stafford Loans (both subsidized and unsubsidized), Federal PLUS Loans, Federal Consolidation Loans, and Federal Supplemental Loans for Students (SLS).
- The William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan (Direct Loan) Program includes Federal Direct Stafford/Ford (Direct Subsidized) Loans, Federal Direct Unsubsidized Stafford/Ford (Direct Unsubsidized) Loans, Federal Direct PLUS (Direct PLUS) Loans, and Federal Direct Consolidation (Direct Consolidation) Loans.
- Rehabilitation of your defaulted loan occurs only after you have made 9 voluntary, reasonable and affordable monthly payments within 20 days of the due date during 10 consecutive months and, for FFEL loans, when the loan has been sold to an eligible lender. When you rehabilitate your loans, you will regain all the benefits of the Direct Loan Program or FFEL Program, including eligibility for deferments or forbearances and eligibility for a repayment plan with a monthly payment amount based on your income. You will also regain eligibility to receive additional Federal student aid, including additional Federal student loans. After a defaulted loan is rehabilitated, your loan holder will instruct any consumer reporting agency to which the default was - reported to remove the default from your credit history.

- Reasonable and affordable payment amount means a monthly payment that is based either on the 15 percent formula or on information provided in this form and supporting documentation. It cannot be a percentage of your total loan balance or based on information unrelated to your total financial circumstances.
- The 15 percent formula means fifteen percent of the amount by which your Adjusted Gross Income exceeds 150% of the poverty guideline amount that is applicable to your family size and state, divided by 12. Your minimum payment may not be less than $5.00.
- The loan holder of a defaulted Direct Loan Program loan(s) is the U.S. Department of Education (the Department). The loan holder of a defaulted FFEL Program loan(s) may be a guaranty agency or the Department.
- Public assistance means payments you receive under a federal or state program. These assistance programs include, but are not limited to, Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Food Stamps/Supplemental Nutritional Assistance Program (SNAP), or state general public assistance.

SECTION 7: LOAN REHABILITATION AGREEMENT

- To rehabilitate your loan, you must accept either the monthly rehabilitation payment amount determined using the 15 percent formula, or the amount determined based on the monthly income, monthly expenses, and family size information that you provide on this form and on any requested supporting documentation.
- Your loan holder will provide you with a written loan rehabilitation agreement confirming your monthly rehabilitation payment amount.

- To accept the loan rehabilitation agreement, you must sign the agreement and return it to your loan holder.
- During the loan rehabilitation period, the loan holder will limit contact with you on the loan being rehabilitated to collection activities that are required by law or regulation, and to communication that supports the rehabilitation.
- If you do not accept either monthly payment amount, your rehabilitation request will not be considered any further.

Privacy Act Notice. The Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a) requires that the following notice be provided to you:

The authorities for collecting the requested information from and about you are §421 et seq. and §451 et seq. of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended (20 U.S.C. 1071 et seq. and 20 U.S.C. 1087a et seq.) and the authorities for collecting and using your Social Security Number (SSN) are §§428B(f) and 484(a)(4) of the HEA (20 U.S.C. 1078-2(f) and 1091(a)(4)) and 31 U.S.C. 7701(b). Participating in the Federal Family Education Loan (FFEL) Program or the William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan (Direct Loan) Program and giving us your SSN are voluntary, but you must provide the requested information, including your SSN, to participate.

The principal purposes for collecting the information on this form, including your SSN, are to verify your identity, to determine your eligibility to receive a loan or a benefit on a loan (such as a deferment, forbearance, discharge, or forgiveness) under the FFEL and/or Direct Loan Programs, to permit the servicing of your loan(s), and, if it becomes necessary, to locate you and to collect and report on your loan(s) if your loan(s) becomes delinquent or defaults. We also use your SSN as an account identifier and to permit you to access your account information electronically.

The information in your file may be disclosed, on a caseby-case basis or under a computer matching program, to third parties as authorized under routine uses in the appropriate systems of records notices. The routine uses of this information include, but are not limited to, its disclosure to federal, state, or local agencies, to private parties such as relatives, present and former employers, business and personal associates, to consumer reporting agencies, to financial and educational institutions, and to guaranty agencies in order to verify your identity, to determine your eligibility to receive a loan or a benefit on a loan, to permit the servicing or collection of your loan(s), to enforce the terms of the loan(s), to investigate possible fraud and to verify compliance with federal student financial aid program regulations, or to locate you if you become delinquent in your loan payments or if you default. To provide default rate calculations, disclosures may be made to guaranty agencies, to financial and educational institutions, or to state agencies. To provide financial aid history information, disclosures may be made to educational institutions. To assist program administrators with tracking refunds and cancellations, disclosures may be made to guaranty agencies, to financial and educational institutions, or to federal or state agencies. To provide a standardized method for educational institutions to efficiently submit student enrollment statuses, disclosures may be made to guaranty agencies or to financial and educational institutions. To counsel you in repayment efforts, disclosures may be made to guaranty agencies, to financial and educational institutions, or to federal, state, or local agencies.

In the event of litigation, we may send records to the Department of Justice, a court, adjudicative body, counsel, party, or witness if the disclosure is relevant and necessary to the litigation. If this information, either alone or with other information, indicates a potential violation of law, we may send it to the appropriate authority for action. We may send information to members of Congress if you ask them to help you with federal student aid questions. In circumstances involving employment complaints, grievances, or disciplinary actions, we may disclose relevant records to adjudicate or investigate the issues. If provided for by a collective bargaining agreement, we may disclose records to a labor organization recognized under 5 U.S.C. Chapter 71. Disclosures may be made to our contractors for the purpose of performing any programmatic function that requires disclosure of records. Before making any such disclosure, we will require the contractor to maintain Privacy Act safeguards. Disclosures may also be made to qualified researchers under Privacy Act safeguards.

Paperwork Reduction Notice. According to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, no persons are required to respond to a collection of information unless such collection displays a valid OMB control number. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 1.0 hours (60 minutes) per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data resources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the information collection. The obligation to respond to this collection is required to obtain a benefit in accordance with 34 CFR 682.405 or 685.211. Send comments regarding the burden estimate(s) or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to the U.S. Department of Education, 400 Maryland Avenue, SW, Washington, DC 20210-4537 or email ICDocketMgr@ed.gov and reference OMB Control Number 1845-0120. Note: Please do not return the completed form to this address.

If you have questions regarding the status of your individual submission of this form, contact your loan holder (see Section 8).
